Numb. 1600

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 17. to Monday March 21. 1680.

Naples, Feb. 25.

SInce the arrival of the last Courier from Spain, it has been the general discourse that the Duke of Albuquerque is to succeed our present Viceroy in the Government of this Kingdom. There have been some disorders at Trapani in Sicily, but some evil minded persons, who would be glad to see that Kingdom involved in new troubles, have spread reports abroad concerning them, which have nothing at all of truth.

Warsaw, Feb. 28. The Moscovite Ambassadors, which we have expected with so much impatience are at last arrived; and this day they made their publick Entry, and within a day or two will have their Audience of the King and the Dyet; It is in the mean time said that these Ambassadors come empowered to make such overtures, as will be very acceptable to this Republick, and therefore its not doubted but a resolution will be taken to joyne with the Czar of Moscovy in a War against the Turks, which the Popes Nuncio and the Emperors Ambassador are not wanting to do what lyes in them to promote; The Dyet which was upon breaking up, the six weeks which is the Term of their Session being ready to expire, is prolonged for eight days, which will be chiefly employed in hearing the Propositions of the said Ambassadors, and taking fitting Resolutions upon them.

Rome, March 1. On Sunday last arrived here an Express from France; and the next day the French Ambassador wrote to the several Cardinals that are here, except the Cardinals Cibo, Ottoboni, Carpegna, and Azzolino, to acquaint them with the reasons that have induced the King his Master to revoke the Decree made in the Reign of Henry the IV. concerning the Regality, and to proceed as he has done in this Affair. The Cardinal d' Estree has likewise desired another Audience of the Pope, and its said that if his Eminence find in him no disposition to an Accommodation, he will part from hence to Turin, and that his Brother the Duke d' Estree will not continue here long after him.

Venice, March 8. The Duke of Hanouer parted from hence, on Sunday last, but in his journey was taken with a Cholick, upon notice of which Physitians were sent to him from hence, and we since understand that he is pretty well again, and in a condition to continue his journey. The Duke of Mantoua, is gone home, and the Abbée Morel the French Envoye did not stay here many days after, but followed his Highness to Mantoua. The matter of the Regality and the differences that have thereupon arisen between the Court of France and Rome, afford an ample subject of discourse, which the generality of people here at present entertain themselves with, looking upon it as a thing that may, if it be not accommodated, have great consequences, and may even be an occasion of disturbing the Peace of Italy; two days since arrived here the Cardinal Barbarigo.

Vienna, March 9. The Duke of Lorrain will part hence the next week with his Wife the Queen of Poland for Lintz, to meet their Imperial Majesties there, at their return from Oetingen, and from thence will continue their journey to Insprucks. Yesterday arrived here an Extraordinary Courier from Constantinople, the Letters he brought were presently sent forward to Lintz, being as the report goes of great concernment, which says, that there was great appearance of a Peace between the Moscovites and the Turks, and that the true designs of the latter were upon Hungary.

Berlin, March 8. Yesterday our Elector went hence to Francford on the Oder ten German Leagues from hence, where he will continue during the Fair which begins there the tenth Instant. The day is set for the Sale of the Goods taken on Board the Spanish Ship, and the Sieur Roulé chief director of the Maritine Affairs will part from hence in few days for the Pillaw to give the necessary orders in this matter, as also for the fitting out the said Spanish Ship to reinforce the Squadron, which our Elector has sent to the West-Indies: There is a report as if they had taken two or three prizes; the Plague being wholy ceased at Dresden and Leipzicke, the Merchants return to their Trade, which will in a short time be restored to it's former State.

Berlin, March 11. Our Letters from Warsaw advise us of the arrival of the Moscovite Ambassadors; that thereupon the Dyet was prolonged to the 8th of this Month; on the second the said Ambassadors were to have their Audience; If the Propositions they make be acceptable to the Dyet, it is generally believed they will resolve to enter into an actual War against the Turks.

Strasburg, March 10. We talk much of the Conferences that are to be held between the Imperial and French Commissioners, though no body expects any great matters from them. The Leavies that are making for his Imperial Majesty at Nurenberg, Augsbourg, and Francford, go on very well; and from the last of those places they write that several Imperial Troops were on their march to reinforce the Garrison of Philipsburg.

Lintz, March 11. The fourth Instant their Imperial Majesties parted from hence for Oetingen, from whence they will return on the 14 and on the